U.S. AIR FORCE

USAF- AIRCREW SOFT CONTACT LENS PROGRAM

In Accordance With

AFI 48-123, para 6.19 (05 NOV 2013)

Aircrew are authorized to use soft contact lenses (SCLs) for vision correction provided they are in compliance with the requirements detailed in the USAF Aircrew Soft Contact Lens (ACSCL) Program .

Routine use of soft contact lenses do not require aeromedical waiver if criteria of USAF Aircrew Soft Contact Lens (ACSCL) Program are met.

The use of contact lenses is voluntary, however program compliance is Mandatory for:

- Flying Class I/IA electing to wear contact lenses, on or off duty.
- Flying Class II/IIU/III only if they use contacts for in-flight duties. They are encouraged to follow the program if they wear SCLs at any other time.

See AFI 48-123, para 6.19. – 6.19.2.3. for more details

Why have an approved list?

- Less than 60% water to prevent dehydration
- Logistics of supporting all possible lenses on market
 - Over 100 lens manufacturers in the U.S.
- Allows optometrist to be familiar with lenses fit by other providers

How is list determined?

- Air Force Optometry Consultant polls ODs yearly
 - New products added as need arises
 - Old products removed if no longer being used
